Happy holidays from our family to yours!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your continued support during the past year. Not only with the store but personally as well; a warm hug, kind words spoken, or just stopping by to say hello and enjoy a cup of tea with me touches my heart.

Bless you!

Please note: This is my personal opinion only and is not meant to offend anyone.

The vast economic changes in our area have left none untouched! My intent is not to underrate the impact of these changes but, rather to view it as a 'shake up, wake up' kinda thing. A community dependent on industry is often lulled into material complacency.

Now that the carpet has been, once again, ripped out from under us, may we see it for the illusion that it really was.

Perhaps we can choose to view it in a positive manner and consider it as an opportunity for us to revisit our values.

May we reach out to each other for encouragement and support as we face these challenging times together.

You are in my thoughts and prayers during this transition. I wish you all the best in the
